News letter 2016

Editorial.

First of all we would like to thank everyone for supporting our show it is gratifying to see the same faces year on year also the 17 new exhibitors that were present last year, I would also like to thank our sponsors for their continued support and the help that the agricultural centre offer us.

Costs.

The Bakewell Agricultural Centre must be one of the premier poultry show sites in the country but it has to be paid for, their cost rise every year by circa 2% it now costs £3,700 to stage our show however we have managed to keep the same entry fees for the third year running, as long as we can break even the club is happy.

We at the High Peak feel privileged to hold our show in such great surroundings as the lovely town of Bakewell with all that it has to offer.

High Peak News.

Jill and myself celebrated our Golden wedding Anniversary and we would like to thank everyone for all the messages, cards and flowers, we were completely overwhelmed thank you very much.

Emma Hancock has been voted Young Exhibitor of the year and has received recognition at the National Show, this is a great achievement,

WELL DONE EMMA

We have listened to our exhibitors who have asked for extra classes and in that respect we have included five further classes for waterfowl, split the rare breed longtails and also included Quail eggs. You tell us what classes you want and we will oblige.

This year also saw the end of Andrew Wetters tenure as President of the P.C.G.B, I would like to thank Andrew on behalf of the High Peak and the P.C.G.B for the way he has carried out his duties. Thank You Andrew.

Derek Alsop, One of our oldest members has been very poorly, I am pleased to say he is now on the mend and will probably be at our show. Ray Edwards who has been showing with us for many years has had an accident at home, I believe he is on the mend, we send our best wishes to them both.

It is also with regret that we have to report the death of a long time exhibitor at the High Peak, Mr John Jennings, we offer our condolences to his wife and family.

If anyone would like to join The High Peak Poultry Club The just come along to the Queens Hotel at Dove holes 8PM first Friday in the month.
